Guesthouse Pri Mraku 3*, Ljubljana

The guesthouse is located in the city centre, close to most of the colleges, embassies, the Cankarjev dom congress and culture centre, Narodna in univerzitetna knjižnica (the National and University Library), Križanke, Opera, Drama and the Slovenian Philharmonic Society. We offer 71 beds in 36 rooms. Our restaurant serves a wide selection of dishes and locally-produced wines. During the summer, you can also enjoy staying in our garden, under the two hundred year-old vine we use to produce our own champagne - we are the only ones in Ljubljana to offer that. We would also like to stress that the fact that we are small is in no way a problem, but an advantage because this enables us to focus our attention fully to each individual guest.

HOUSES ON THE EDGE OF THE FOREST...

That is what we named our apartments erected in 2007 above our realm of spa pleasures, on the edge of the Tuhinjska valley forests. In our endeavours to be environmentally friendly, we also planted 32 gardens with natural herbs to embellish access to apartments. At the same time, they serve as a starting point of a hiking route that will lead around our spa resort. Last year, 10,000 sunflowers that were planted by members of the Tuhinjska valley tourist association bloomed in the August sun.

Hotel Hvala 4*, Kobarid

You can't help thanking the Hvala family for their lovely hotel: hvala means 'thank you' in Slovene. Having said that, the thing that sets the Hvala apart from many hotels is the family: they have owned and run this place for forty-odd years and during that time have built an intimate understanding of their customers and their business.

The hotel sits in the middle of the little town of Kobarid, a short distance from the Soča river. There are all manner of activities available (especially fly-fishing, which is something of a speciality for the Hvala), whether wet, dry, low, high, strenuous or (sigh) relaxing. And once you've done all of that, you'll be pleased to know that the hotel boasts one of Slovenia's best fish restaurants.
